

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Babies book.

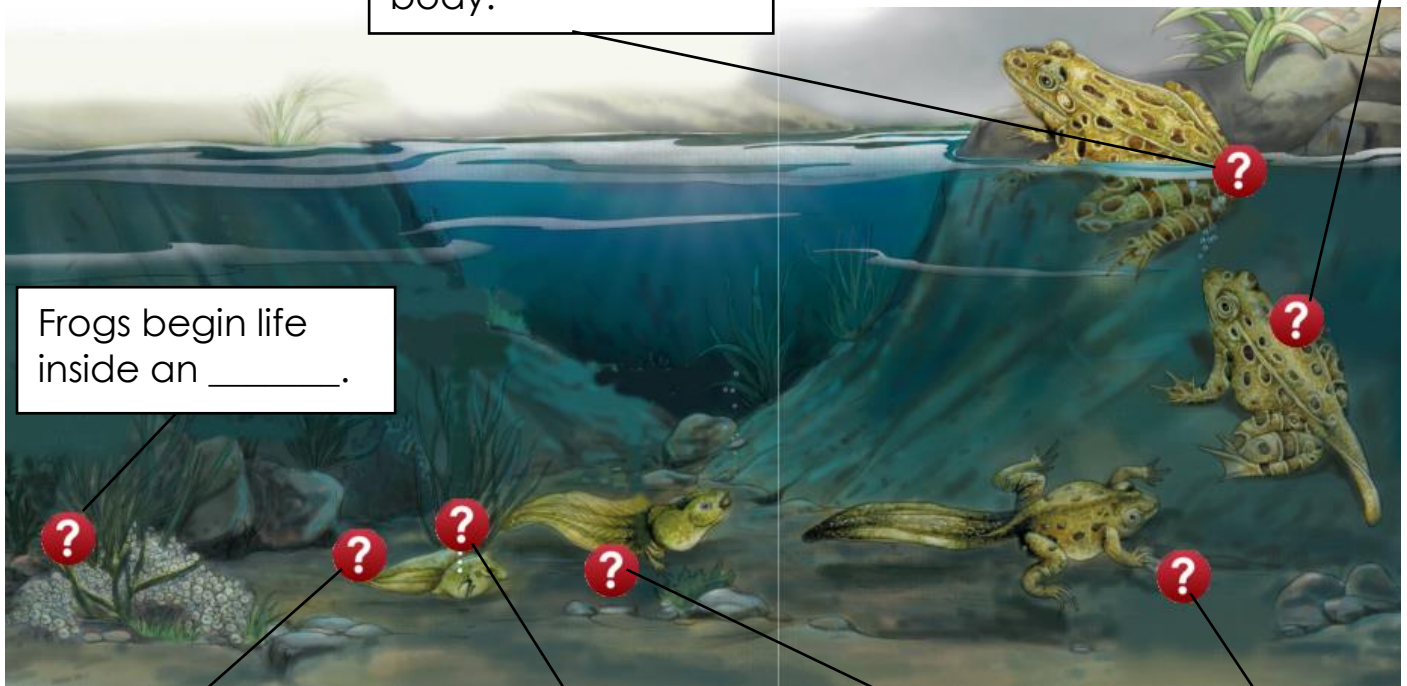

A mother frog has just laid her _____ in a pond. In a few days, tiny animals called _____ will hatch from the eggs. The tadpoles will stay in the _____ as they grow. They will go through many changes before they become adult frogs.

The _____ disappears into the body.

_____ develop and replace the gills. Now the frog can breathe air outside the water.

Frogs begin life inside an _____.

_____ are born with _____ that are shaped like paddles for swimming.

Young tadpoles have _____ for breathing underwater.

Tadpoles begin to grow _____.

Then _____ begin to grow.