

To help you complete this worksheet, use the World of Birds book.

Birds that don't fly

All birds have _____. But not all birds can _____.

Some birds, such as ostriches, _____, and rheas, can only walk or run. They use their wings for _____ when they are walking or running. _____ use their wings to “fly” underwater rather than in the air!

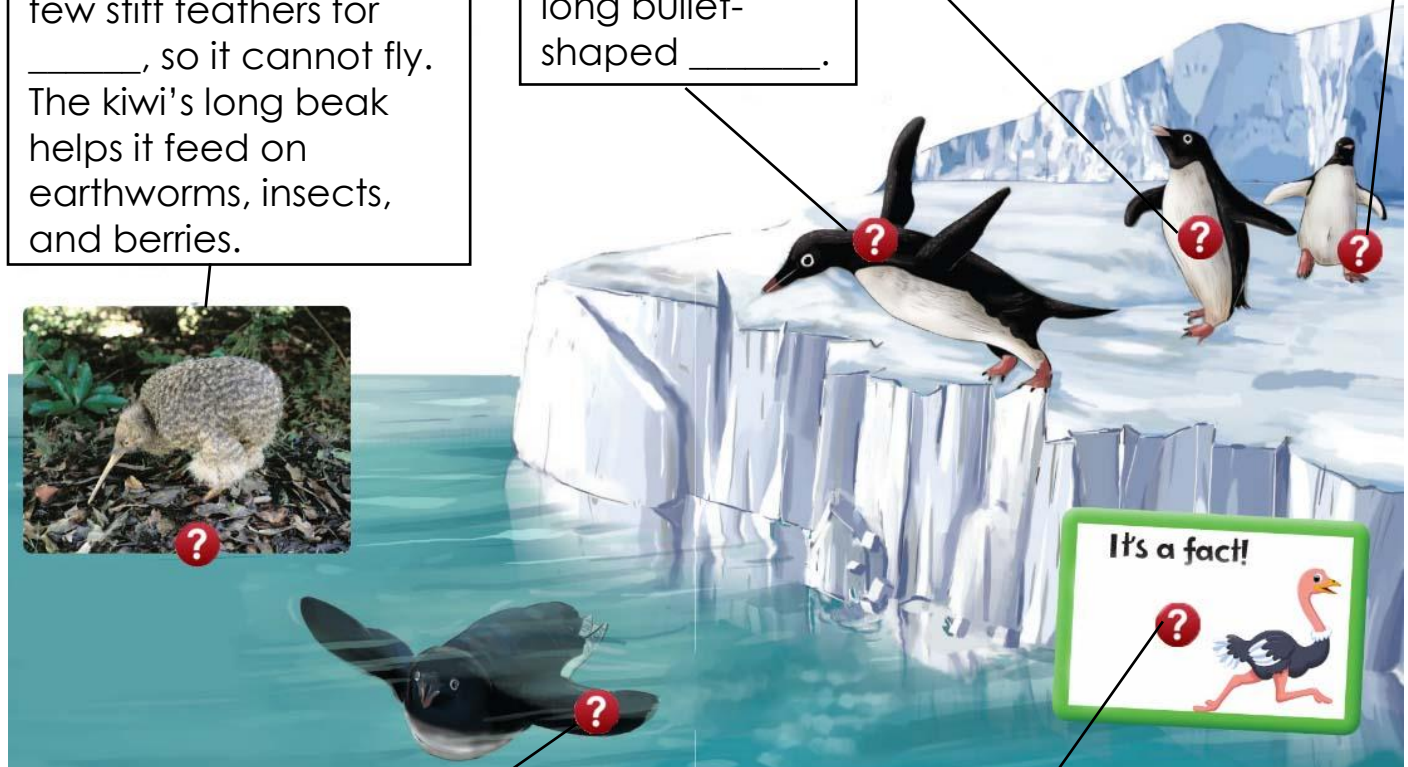

The _____ lives in New Zealand. It has only a few stiff feathers for _____, so it cannot fly. The kiwi's long beak helps it feed on earthworms, insects, and berries.

Short, thick _____ cover the penguin's body.

The bird has a long bullet-shaped _____.

A penguin waddles on its short _____.

A penguin uses its _____ as flippers in the water.

The male African _____ is the largest bird. It may grow as tall a 2.4m and weigh as much as 156kg. But it cannot _____.

