

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Jobs to Do book.

Civil engineer

Civil engineers make plans for buildings, dams, _____, highways, and railroads. Some civil engineers make plans for _____, pipelines, and water supply systems. Others study soil and _____ so buildings are put in the safest spots. Civil engineers usually _____ in offices or at construction sites. They tell the workers how to follow the _____.

A civil engineer wears a _____ to protect his head at a construction site.

Backhoes, _____, and other big machines help do the work on a civil engineering project.

A civil engineer reads a _____, a drawing that shows how to put up a building.

