

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Jobs to Do book.

Electrical worker

Electrical workers set up and fix the _____ lines, wiring, and equipment that we use every day. Electric lights, television sets, _____, dishwashers, vacuum cleaners, and washing machines all need electric power to work. Electric power is made in buildings called power _____. Wires called power _____ go from plants to buildings and houses. The electric power comes to us on the power _____.

An electrical worker fixes a _____.

A _____ protects the electrical worker's head in case of a fall.

Safety _____ protect the eyes.

Rubber _____ and rubber-soled _____ protect the electrical worker from getting shocked by an electric current.

An electrical worker attaches herself to the pole with a _____ so that she does not fall.

