

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Play Sports! book.

Golf is an outdoor sport played on grass on a large piece of land called a _____. Most golf courses have _____ holes in the ground. The holes are placed far apart from each other. Golfers use long sticks called _____ to hit a small ball into the holes along the course. Golfers try to get the ball into each hole using the _____ strokes (swings) of the club.

A golfer uses a _____ to hit the ball into a hole.

The _____ is placed in the hole to give the golfer a target.

The _____ is the area between the tee and the green.

The _____ is the area where the hole is.

Golfers try to get the ball into each _____ using the fewest strokes.

Play for each hole begins at a small, flat area called a _____.

A _____ is small, white, and dimpled.

The small peg on which the ball is placed for the golfer to hit is also called a _____.