

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Tropical Fish book.

Lionfish

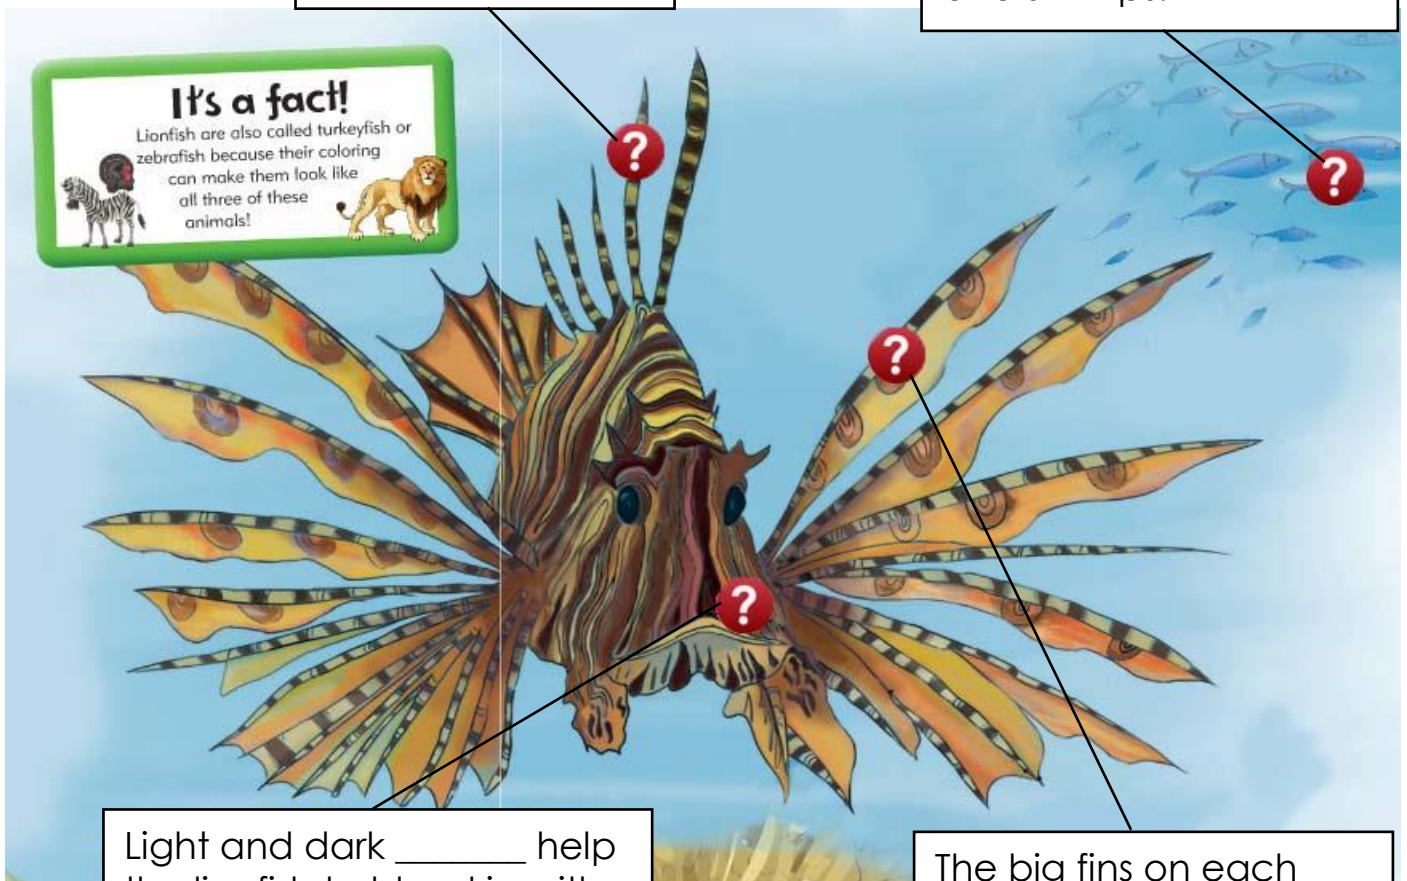

Look! It's a fish that looks like a _____! Lionfish get their name from their long fins and pointy spines that look like a lion's big collar of fur – its _____. Stings from this fish's stiff, sharp _____ can kill other fish and hurt people!

The lionfish uses its stiff, sharp _____ to stick and poison its enemies.

Lionfish like to eat _____, crabs, and shrimps.

It's a fact!

Lionfish are also called turkeyfish or zebrafish because their coloring can make them look like all three of these animals!

Light and dark _____ help the lionfish to blend in with the coral reef.

The big fins on each side of a lionfish are made up of parts called _____.

