

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Tropical Fish book.

Moray eel

The moray eel looks like a _____ but swims like a fish! Its long, thin _____ slithers in, out, above, and below the coral reef's many shapes. Moray eels _____ in reef's cracks and holes. They quickly swim out to catch passing _____.

The moray eel has one _____ that runs along the top of its body.

When the eel rests at the bottom of the reef, some types of _____ will help the eel keep clean. These cleaner shrimp crawl over the eel, eating things that have stuck to it.

The eel has sharp _____ and powerful _____ that it uses to catch fish to eat.

The large, flat _____ helps push the eel through the water.

The spotted _____ pattern helps the eel to blend into the coral.

The moray eel opens and closes its _____ to breathe.

