

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Tropical Fish book.

Parrotfish

Parrotfish get their name from their unusual front _____, which look like a parrot's beak. Parrotfish move around during the _____ and rest at _____.

Large, thick _____ cover the fish's body.

The fish uses its sharp _____ to scrape small living things from the coral to eat.

Many parrotfish make a sort of _____ for themselves at night. The blanket is see-through. The fish rests wrapped in its blanket until _____ when it swims off to explore the _____.

Special parts of the _____ make sticky stuff that covers the parrotfish at night.