

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Jobs to Do book.

Scientist

Scientists study _____ and how things happen. They try to learn about the _____, especially about nature.

Scientists _____ many different subjects. Some scientists study how plants and animals _____ and grow. Some study _____. Others study the _____ and the things in it.

A scientist who studies living things is called a _____.

Special glasses called _____ keep scientists' eyes safe in the lab.

A clean _____ protects against spills in the lab.

A _____ makes tiny things look bigger.

_____ study how animals live. The zoologists learn what can help or hurt animals.

This scientist works in a _____, a special place to do scientific experiments and investigations.