

To help you complete this worksheet, use the World of Birds book.

Woodpeckers

Knock-knock! Who's there? A woodpecker – up in the tree! This bird _____ on the tree bark to make a _____. It _____ and listens for a tasty _____ to eat.

A woodpecker drills a hole in the tree bark with its sharp _____. It uses its long, sticky tongue to pull out an insect.

Strong _____ and sharp _____ help the bird cling to the tree bark.

Most male woodpeckers have some _____ feathers on their head.

The bird uses its stiff _____ to help hold its body against the tree.

