

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Animal Safari book.

Elephant

An elephant has the longest _____ in the world, but it uses its nose for more than smelling! An elephant uses its nose, called a _____, for drinking water, carrying food, and making a loud noise just like a _____!

An elephant has thick, wrinkled _____. Sometimes it cracks in the hot sun.

When an elephant is hot, it flaps its huge _____ to cool down.

A flexible _____ is useful for pulling tasty twigs off trees.

An elephant _____ its food through two nostrils to find out if it's good to eat.

It is easy to dig up juicy plants with long, curved _____ like these.

